

5-21-1936

Bulloch Times (Statesboro News-Statesboro Eagle)

Notes

Condition varies. Some pages missing or in poor condition.

Originals provided for filming by the publisher.

Gift of Statesboro Herald and the Bulloch County Historical Society.

Follow this and additional works at: <https://digitalcommons.georgiasouthern.edu/bulloch-news-issues>

Recommended Citation

"Bulloch Times (Statesboro News-Statesboro Eagle)" (1936). Bulloch County Newspapers (Single Issues). 1845.
<https://digitalcommons.georgiasouthern.edu/bulloch-news-issues/1845>

This newspaper is brought to you for free and open access by the Bulloch County Historical Newspapers at Digital Commons@Georgia Southern. It has been accepted for inclusion in Bulloch County Newspapers (Single Issues) by an authorized administrator of Digital Commons@Georgia Southern. For more information, please contact digitalcommons@georgiasouthern.edu.

SOCIAL CLUBS PERSONAL

MRS. R. L. BRADY, Editor Phone 253-R

Purely Personal

Mrs. John Wilcox left Tuesday for Atlanta to visit her sister. Mr. and Mrs. Walter Brown were business visitors in Savannah Monday. Mrs. Claude Daily left during the week for a visit to her sister in Atlanta.

Dr. T. J. Miller and Miss Mary Hogan visited his parents at Rocky Ford Sunday.

Mrs. Charles Perry and son, Tom, of Savannah, are visiting her mother, Mrs. T. H. Waters.

Mr. and Mrs. J. V. Tillman spent Sunday with her mother, Mrs. B. E. Collins, near Metter.

Mrs. Virgil Donaldson had as her guest for the week and her mother, Mrs. Wilson, of Lyons.

Mrs. Malcolm Jones, of Eastman, spent last week end here with her mother, Mrs. John F. Brannen.

Mrs. Olin Franklin and Mrs. Lowell Mallard visited Mrs. Olan Stubbs at Lanier Wednesday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Clark Wilcox have returned to their home in Cobutta after visiting their parents here.

George Warren has returned to his home in Orlando, Fla., after visiting his daughter, Mrs. S. J. Proctor.

Miss Bessie Mitchell, of Savannah, is spending the week with her sister, Miss Minnie Mitchell, at Register.

Mr. and Mrs. George Parrish and son, George Jr., of Jessup, were guests Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Smith.

Mrs. J. W. Williams and Mrs. J. A. Waters, of Daisy, are spending the week with Mrs. John Powell at Register.

Mr. and Mrs. Bobby Jones and son, John, of Jacksonville, Fla., were week end guests of his sister, Mrs. Leffler DeLoach.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry McElveen, of Savannah, were week-end guests of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Woodcock.

Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Rushing and sons, Regie and T. E., were guests of Mr. and Mrs. L. K. Rushing in Glennville Sunday.

Mrs. Maggie Alderman left Tuesday morning for her home in Chastula, Tenn., after a visit to her daughters, Fred Brannen and Mrs. Charles Zetterford.

Miss Mary Hiley, of Chipley, Fla., and Miss Flora McFatter, of Vernon, Fla., who are students at G. S. C. W., Milledgeville, were week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. D. S. Robertson and family.

Mrs. Julian Anderson has returned to her home in Atlanta after visiting relatives here and attending the continued meeting at the Primitive Baptist church.

Bobby McLemore left during the week for Nashville, Tenn., to be with his brother, Morris McLemore, a student at Vanderbilt University, who is in the hospital recuperating from an operation.

Among those to attend the district conference of the Methodist Episcopal Society at Rocky Ford Thursday were Mesdames Jesse O. Johnston, Hal Kennon, J. E. McCroan, J. E. Carruth, W. O. Shuptrine, Fred T. Lanier, W. L. Jones, Mrs. Daniels and Miss Inez Williams.

Miss Ruth Seligman, University of Georgia sophomore, spent last week end here with her relatives. Accompanying her were Messrs Shirley Conn and Adele Bluestein, of Athens, and Miss Dorothy Montony, who motored down from Andrews, N. C. Miss Gertie Seligman returned with them to Athens, where she will spend a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Proctor and family had as dinner guests Sunday George Warren, of Orlando, Fla.; Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Donaldson and little daughter, Donnie, of Tifton; Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Dexter, of Augusta; Mr. M. L. Langford, of Tifton; Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Donaldson, Claxton; George Donaldson and Mary Ann French, of Collegeboro, and little June Kennedy.

Mrs. A. M. Braswell spent Monday in Millen with friends. Miss Alice Jones, of Savannah, visited relatives in the city Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Olin Groover spent Sunday in Savannah with relatives. Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Brett spent several days during the week at Tybee.

Miss Winnie Jones, who teaches in Millen, was at home for the week end. Miss Brunell Deal, who teaches at Vidalia, was at home for the week end.

Mr. and Mrs. Osborne Tuckett, of Claxton, were visitors in the city Friday.

Miss Frances Brett, who teaches at the city, was a week-end visitor in the city.

Miss Kate Slater, of Claxton, is visiting Mrs. Lilly G. Collins for a few days.

Mrs. George Franklin Jr., of Pulaski, was a visitor in the city during the week end.

Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Bean spent Sunday in Savannah with her mother, Mrs. H. G. Moore.

Mrs. F. D. Brennan, of Jacksonville, spent last week end with Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Hart.

Dr. and Mrs. Powell Templek, of Spartanburg, S. C., were week-end guests of his mother.

Oliver Bland has returned to Atlanta after visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. O. Bland.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Blitch and little son, of Savannah, spent Sunday here with their parents.

Miss Carrie Lee Davis spent several days last week in Savannah with her sister, Mrs. Julius Rogers.

Mr. and Mrs. Roger Davis, of Savannah, spent Sunday here with his mother, Mrs. W. D. Davis.

Mrs. Donald Fraser, of Hinesville, was the week-end guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Green.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Gunter, of Louisville, visited her sister, Mrs. C. B. Mathews, and her family during the week end.

Mr. and Mrs. Julian Brooks, of Swainsboro, were week-end guests of her mother, Mrs. W. B. Johnson.

Dr. and Mrs. Leo Templek and little son have returned to Chapel Hill, N. C., after visiting relatives here.

Miss Roxie Nevils, of Atlanta, spent last week end here with her parents, Dr. and Mrs. J. C. Nevils.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Boyer and little daughter, Jane, have returned from a visit to her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Carey, of Macon.

Mr. and Mrs. Carey Martin and little daughter, Jane, of Walterboro, S. C., spent Sunday here with their parents.

Mr. and Mrs. Leffler DeLoach and son, J. G., spent Sunday at Claxton with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. B. DeLoach.

Dr. and Mrs. Harold Shuptrine, of Swainsboro, were week-end guests of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Shuptrine.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Tolbert and little son, of Tignall, were week-end guests of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Cone.

Mr. and Mrs. Jason Morgan and little son, of Savannah, were week-end guests of her parents, Dr. and Mrs. J. E. Doneho.

Dr. and Mrs. Randall Jones, of Reidsville, visited their daughter, Mrs. Olliff Everett, and her family during the week.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Chance and children, of Savannah, were week-end guests of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Shuptrine.

Mr. and Mrs. Alton Brannen have returned from their wedding trip, which included points in North Carolina and New York.

Mr. and Mrs. Grady Johnston and children, Kimball, Lane and Mary John, spent last week end with her parents in Monticello.

Mrs. LeRoy Kennedy, of Jacksonville, Fla., who has been visiting her mother, Mrs. E. J. Foss, returned to her home on Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. McCroan spent Sunday with relatives at Louisville. Miss Elizabeth Sorrier visited friends in Swainsboro for the week end.

Dr. and Mrs. H. F. Arundel spent last week end in Savannah on business.

Miss Helen Hall, of Augusta, spent last week end with her mother, Mrs. W. L. Hall.

Miss Ruth Dabney, who teaches at Dublin, spent last week end here with her mother.

Robert Coursey, of Lyons, visited his aunt, Mrs. J. M. Norris, Sunday for the day.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bryant have returned from a visit to her parents at Brunswick.

Mrs. J. C. Collins Jr., of Collins, visited her mother, Mrs. E. H. Kennedy, Monday.

Mrs. L. B. Swain, of Claxton, visited her niece, Mrs. Fred T. Lanier, during the week.

Dr. Kime Templek, of Augusta, spent Sunday here with his mother, Mrs. A. Templek.

Mr. and Mrs. Dallas Jones, of Adel, spent last week end with Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Hart.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Averitt and children, of Millen, spent Sunday here with their parents.

Miss Kate McDougall has returned to Atlanta after visiting her mother, Mrs. D. C. McDougall.

Mr. and Mrs. Horace Woods, of Savannah, were guests Sunday of her mother, Mrs. W. D. Davis.

Mrs. Julian Brooks and Miss Jennie Williams, of Swainsboro, were visitors in the city Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Hendrix, of Dublin, were week-end guests of her mother, Mrs. D. C. McDougall.

Mrs. George Newton and children visited friends and relatives in Lyons and Vidalia during the week end.

Mr. and Mrs. Durward Watson, of Macon, were week-end guests of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Watson.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Woodcock and family spent Sunday in Savannah with Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Woodcock.

Miss Eula Carr, of Thomaston, spent the week end with her mother, Mrs. R. R. Carr, and other relatives.

Mrs. John Bland and children, Katherine and John Jr., of Forest, were week-end guests of her mother, Mrs. J. C. O'Neal, in Macon.

Mrs. Arthur Turner and daughter, Julianne, were week-end guests of her mother, Mrs. J. C. O'Neal, in Macon.

Mr. and Mrs. Olan Stubbs, of Lanier, were week-end guests of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lowell Mallard.

Miss Martha Groover, who teaches at Millen, spent the week end here with her mother, Mrs. S. C. Groover.

Mrs. Frank Richardson, Mrs. Floyd Brannen and Mrs. B. C. Brannen motored to Savannah Friday for the day.

Mr. L. C. Mann has returned to her home in Durham, N. C., after a visit to her mother, Mrs. R. F. Lester.

Hal Macon and son, Hal Jr., spent last week end in Atlanta with Mr. C. E. Cone.

Mr. and Mrs. Hermon Simmons, of Waycross, were guests Sunday of her sister, Mrs. Olliff Everett, and her family.

Mr. and Mrs. Doy Jones, of Blackshear, were dinner guests of his sister, Mrs. Olliff Everett, and her family Sunday.

Kenneth England and Miss Vivie Johnson, students at the Teachers College, spent Sunday at Wadley with their parents.

Mr. and Mrs. P. G. Walker and little son, Perry, were guests Sunday of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. V. N. Odum, near Millhaven.

WEBB-SMITH Mrs. J. E. Webb, of Statesboro, announces the marriage of her daughter, Mildred, to Emory B. Smith, the marriage having taken place March 16th at Ft. Lauderdale, Fla. The bride is a young woman of much personal charm. For the past four years she has been employed with the Statesboro Telephone Co. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Smith, of Statesboro.

Mr. and Mrs. Smith left Saturday for Goulds, Fla., where they will make their home.

WOMAN'S CLUB The regular meeting of the Woman's Club will be held in the club room on Thursday, May 21, at 4 o'clock. All members are urged to attend.

MISSIONARY SOCIETY The Woman's Missionary Society of the Methodist church will have a literary program Monday afternoon at 4 o'clock. Mrs. Roger Holland is planning the program. All members are urged to attend.

SEWING CIRCLE Mrs. Lem E. Brennan will entertain the ladies' sewing circle of the Primitive Baptist church Monday afternoon at 3:30, at her home on College street. All the ladies of the church are urged to be present.

TALK ON FLOWERS Miss Mary Small, of the Teachers College, will give a talk on flowers and a demonstration of the proper arrangement of flowers, at the Women's Club room on Monday, May 18, at 5 o'clock. This demonstration and lecture is under the auspices of the Garden Club, and the public is cordially invited to attend.

MUSIC RECITALS The high school pupils of Mrs. Virgie Lee Hillard will give their recital Monday evening, May 18th, at 8 o'clock, in the high school auditorium.

On Tuesday evening, May 19th at 8 o'clock, Winona Aldred and Horace McDougall will give a joint violin and piano certificate recital.

On Wednesday evening, May 20th, at 8 o'clock, Mrs. Billie Grammer grade pupils will appear in a recital. All these recitals will be given in the high school auditorium. Almut Music Co., Savannah, is furnishing the recitals. The public is cordially invited to be present.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Tolbert and little son, of Tignall, were week-end guests of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Cone.

Mr. and Mrs. Jason Morgan and little son, of Savannah, were week-end guests of her parents, Dr. and Mrs. J. E. Doneho.

Dr. and Mrs. Randall Jones, of Reidsville, visited their daughter, Mrs. Olliff Everett, and her family during the week.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Chance and children, of Savannah, were week-end guests of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Shuptrine.

Mr. and Mrs. Alton Brannen have returned from their wedding trip, which included points in North Carolina and New York.

Mr. and Mrs. Grady Johnston and children, Kimball, Lane and Mary John, spent last week end with her parents in Monticello.

Mrs. LeRoy Kennedy, of Jacksonville, Fla., who has been visiting her mother, Mrs. E. J. Foss, returned to her home on Thursday.

Judge and Mrs. Leroy Cowart, Mrs. Herman Bland and Mr. Tucker attended the funeral of Mr. Durden in Graymont-Savannah Sunday.

Harold Cone, who has been with the Bulloch Drug Co. for several years, left Sunday for Augusta, where he has accepted a position.

Mr. and Mrs. D. B. Turner left Thursday morning for Clytville, Ga., and Marianna, Fla., to visit their daughters, Mrs. Sears and Mrs. Denmark.

Mrs. Sid Parrish, of Savannah, visited her daughter, Mrs. Fred Smith, during the week while attending the week's meeting at the Primitive Baptist church.

Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Lewis had as their guests Sunday Mr. and Mrs. S. Hogarth, and three children, of South Carolina. Mrs. Riley and daughter, Mrs. Manor, with her little daughter, from Louisiana.

WANTED—Small farm at the right price and terms. CHAS. E. CONE. (Times)

Very Best Material and Workmanship Our Prices Are Reasonable

CAREFUL PERSONAL ATTENTION GIVEN ALL ORDERS

BRANNEN-THAYER MONUMENT CO. JOHN M. THAYER, Proprietor.

45 West Main St. STATESBORO, GA. Phone 439

Moving Out Sale!

We are moving our store to Louisville, Ga., on June 1st, and want to reduce our stock; therefore we are offering lowest possible prices for the rest of this month.

STRAP HINGES 6-inch, pair .15c	SPRINKLER POTS 65c	Old Beck COLLARS 55c
HOUSE PAINT Gallon $1.55	ICE CREAM FREEZERS 2-qt. size $1.65	NESCO OIL STOVE With double boiler and tea kettle $14.95
PAINTER'S PASTE Use 1 gallon of oil, make 2 gallons Gallon $1.60	POTATO RAKES $1.05	Extra Heavy RANGE $22.95
LINSEED OIL Gallon 90c	"SKIT" MOSQUITO SPRAY Gallon $1.69	Tapate COLLAR PADS 40c
GARDEN HOSE 50 feet, complete with nozzle, $2.25	BROOMS Special No. 5 29c	COTTON HOES 59c
LAWN BROOMS 79c	Solid Leather COLLARS $2.45	RANGE With iron kettle, frying pan and skillet $31.95
SPRUTEX MOPS 23c	TRACE CHAINS Pair 55c

Bland Hardware Company

"WHERE PRICES ARE RIGHT"

WEST MAIN STREET STATESBORO, GA.

When in Savannah Enjoy Our Delicious Eats and Good Drinks

TRIPLE "XXX" THIRST STATION VICTORY DRIVE OPPOSITE MUNICIPAL STADIUM

"We Spread Your Lunch Right in Your Car"

A STORE FULL OF NEW SUMMER FASHIONS FEATURING HIGH VOLTAGE VALUES FOR OUR GREAT

MAY 88c DAYS

Sensational bargains in wearing apparel and home needs for early and mid-summer. There's no age limitations—men, women and children will come a-runnin' to join in the fun. Take a tip from us—it's the stuff!

Ends Saturday Night, May 17

THE SENSATIONAL ANNOUNCEMENT YOU'VE BEEN LOOKING AND WAITING FOR!

DELUXE PLYMOUTH COACH

Will be given absolutely free to one of our customers. Tickets will be issued with every $1 purchase, commencing Wednesday, May 13th, and continuing until November 14th, on which day this brand new Plymouth deluxe automobile will be awarded. Come in and ask for further details.

SPECIAL DURING MAY 88c DAYS ONLY—$1 tickets with each 88c purchase. Don't delay. Start collecting your tickets now!

H. MINKOVITZ & SONS.

(SUCCESSORS TO JAKE FINE, INC.) STATESBORO, GEORGIA

BULLOCH COUNTY—THE HEART OF GEORGIA. "WHERE NATURE SMILES."

Bulloch Times, Established 1899 Consolidated January 17, 1917. Statesboro News, Established 1901 Statesboro Eagle, Established 1917—Consolidated December 9, 1920.

RAILROAD AGENTS DISCUSS SERVICE

Improvement Has Kept Pace With Present-Day Needs. Says Bean and Bruce.

"Improvements in railroad freight service have kept full step with railroad passenger improvements," is the assertion of G. E. Bean, agent for the Central of Georgia here, and of J. Y. Bruce, division freight agent at Savannah, in a statement published today over their joint signature. They say:

"Air-conditioning, streamlined equipment, much faster schedules, fares at the lowest basis in history, and the marvelous safety record of handling 44 million passengers during 1935 without loss of the life of a single passenger through collision or derailment of a train—all of these achievements and improvements in railroad passenger service will commendation. Yet, although less noticed by the general public, improvements in railroad freight service have kept full step with passenger improvements."

"Freight schedules have been speeded up, perhaps even more than passenger schedules. Freight shipments now reach destination at what we express train speeds only a few years ago, giving the business man express service at freight rates. From some Central of Georgia stations shipments can leave for Chicago, St. Louis or other equally distant points on the same day that notice of shipment is mailed—and both reach consignee the same day. These are outstanding examples of the speed of modern railroad freight services, although of course not all shipments reach destination with the same speed as first class mail."

The free pick-up and delivery of less-than-carload shipments, long known particularly by the Central's local representative as "the most recent improvement in railroad freight service, an innovation which like other improvements has been inaugurated without cost to the public."

Safety of goods entrusted to the railroads, like passenger safety, is at the highest peak in history. Protection from loss or damage due to bad weather, mishandling, fire, or piracy has been brought to a gratifyingly high standard. Claims due to these and other causes are now only a fraction of what they were a few years ago."

Warm Springs maintained its lead of Group "C" towns for a second month, followed by Reidsville, Shellman, Louisville and Vienna, respectively. In sixth place, while Clarkston, Reynoldsville and Wadley maintained exceptional advances.

Woodbine entered its second month as a double leader, holding first place in the special sweepstakes race and also among Group "D" towns. With an average annual use of 2,273.3 kilowatt hours per home, the Camden county seat held a generous lead over Avondale Estates in the race for the special $1,000 sweepstakes prize, and had increased its contest score to 6,021.3 points, far ahead of Chipley, the runner-up. Ochlocknee succeeded Baconton in third place among Group "D" towns, while Alley, Powder Springs, Buena Vista, Hamilton, Riverdale, Lyerly, Bowman and Waco made notable advances in rank.

Contest points are based on the average kilowatt hour consumption per home and the increase in use of electricity since the contest started on November 1, 1935. So well have Georgians taken advantage of the opportunity to use the conveniences made possible by low-cost electricity that the average use in this state ranks fourth among all states of the country, and is greater than the average in any other state east of the Rocky Mountains.

Such classification of acreage will be used only for the purpose of determining the soil-building allowances. The number of dollars for soil-building payments cannot exceed the number of acres in soil-conserving crops, including the use of green manure crops, on the farm in 1936. That is the top limit on the total Class II payment for the farm. However, the rate of payment for specified soil-building practices may be greater than $1.00 per acre for the acreage on which they are carried out.

The Soviet government is going into the manufacture of automobile sedans. Needless to say that these autos will not be driven by the Red proletariat.

Local Girl Honored At Brenau College

Gainesville, Ga., May 18.—Miss Aileen Whiteside, daughter of Dr. J. H. Whiteside and a junior in Brenau College, has lately been elected vice-president of the senior class of 1936-37. Miss Whiteside is a member of the Lorelei Music Club and of Phi Mu, national social society.

POWER COMPANY ADDS NEW PRIZES

Statesboro Retains Steadfast Hold Upon Third Place in $10,000 State Contest.

Atlanta, Ga., May 18.—Six new prizes, totaling $100, have been added to the $10,000 prize pool offered to Georgia cities and towns in the Home Town Electrical contest, according to an announcement by the Georgia Power Company. These prizes, like the others, will go to the towns themselves—not to individuals—for civic, charitable or educational purposes. One of the six $100 improvement prizes will be awarded to the town in each of the six geographic divisions of the state which makes the best showing in increased use of electric service in the home during the last six months of the contest—May 1 through October 31, 1936, the announcement stated.

Small towns and large towns have equal opportunity to win the additional prizes, it was pointed out, because past standings or past use of electric service have no bearing on the contest. The prizes will be awarded to the towns which win the main contest prizes will not be eligible to win the improvement prizes.

On May 1, at the end of the first six months of the 12-month contest, America continued to lead. Georgia was second, with a score of 19. Three cash prizes totaling $2,250. America had amassed 4,223.5 points, while Tifton was not far behind, with 4,299.5 points. Then came Statesboro, Dublin and Brunswick, which overtook Gainesville Friday April 11. Windsor, Waynesboro and Teococ replaced Augusta in ninth rank.

Leading towns in Group "B" of the contest continued on May 1 to be, respectively, Baxley, Manchester, Swainsboro and Montezuma. Pelham advanced seven ranks to sixth place, while Clarkston, Reynoldsville and Wadley maintained exceptional advances.

Woodbine entered its second month as a double leader, holding first place in the special sweepstakes race and also among Group "D" towns. With an average annual use of 2,273.3 kilowatt hours per home, the Camden county seat held a generous lead over Avondale Estates in the race for the special $1,000 sweepstakes prize, and had increased its contest score to 6,021.3 points, far ahead of Chipley, the runner-up. Ochlocknee succeeded Baconton in third place among Group "D" towns, while Alley, Powder Springs, Buena Vista, Hamilton, Riverdale, Lyerly, Bowman and Waco made notable advances in rank.

Contest points are based on the average kilowatt hour consumption per home and the increase in use of electricity since the contest started on November 1, 1935. So well have Georgians taken advantage of the opportunity to use the conveniences made possible by low-cost electricity that the average use in this state ranks fourth among all states of the country, and is greater than the average in any other state east of the Rocky Mountains.

Egg-Laying Banner Is For Rhode Island Red

One serious objection to a contest of any kind is that one is apt to carry on to the point of unreasonableness; that is, go so far that belief will be staggered if not paralyzed. We had that in mind recently when we accepted in good faith a White Leghorn egg which weighed slightly over 4 ounces and measured 8 1/2 by 1 1/2 inches, which acceptance was accompanied by a challenge to "beat it you can!" Now comes this record from a Rhode Island Red belonging to Mrs. F. C. Rozier, Stillson: One egg weighing 5 1/2 ounces and measuring 7 1/2 by 1 1/2 inches. If you keep in mind that the standard egg weighs 1 1/2 ounces, you will observe that this prize winner is almost equal to four ordinary eggs. We feel that we had better stop this business before somebody begins to doubt our veracity, though we aver in all seriousness that these two records are authentic. Think of a dozen eggs weighing 66 ounces!

Remember the good old days when most of the bank robbing was an inside job?

WILL NOT ENFORCE WEED CONTRACTS

Tobacco Growers Notified That Limitations Will Be Suspend for 1936 Crop.

Official notice has been received by County Agent Byron Dyer that the tobacco contract signed by the Georgia tobacco growers with the Georgia-Florida Tobacco Association, Inc., will not be enforced in 1936.

This contract, independent of any government supervision, limited the amount of tobacco a producer could sell to 75 per cent of his base production unless the producer paid a penalty.

This ruling will not in any way affect the collection of payments under the soil conservation program for those farmers who have reduced their acreage up to 30 per cent of their base acreage.

In deciding to suspend the contracts for 1936 the association directors stated that since the contract was a clause that the contracts would not be effective unless Georgia produced more than 600,000,000 pounds in 1936, they would not be enforced and the directors were confident that the Georgia crop of blue-cured tobacco would not exceed this figure, therefore they would suspend the contracts already signed.

Georgia growers co-operated in putting these contracts into effect enough to warrant production control. Bulloch county tobacco growers signed up more than 95 per cent of the acreage.

Bulloch county farmers that expect to collect soil building payments on a winter wheat, vetch and other locally adapted winter legumes, rye, oats, wheat or mixtures of these grains turned in the spring of 1936, are urged to protect their interest by getting a receipt for the seed used on such acreage and to stake off the area for the winter wheat.

It would also be wise to have a neighbor witness a statement to the effect that such acreage was devoted to the use designated, giving the date turned.

If Bulloch farmers receive their pro rata share of soil conserving crops 1 out of every 7 1/2 acres of soil conserving crops will be planted in the soil conserving and soil building crops.

LOCAL FARMERS HAVE CATTLE UNIT

Organize Here to Promote Improvement in Methods of Breeding and Feeding.

Farmers in Bulloch county interested in beef cattle assembled at the county house Thursday and organized their own Georgia-Carolina organization to promote the feeding, buying and selling of beef cattle and hogs.

Wade C. Hodges was elected president of the local unit, A. J. Knight, vice-president, and W. H. Smith, secretary-treasurer.

When the entire twenty counties in this region have completed their organization work will be started on pastures and procuring feeder cattle and purebred sires. Most of the counties have organized and are now ready to work.

S. W. Lewis was elected to serve on the regional board of directors of the organization.

C. G. Arnett, cattleman from Screven county, outlined the plans of the organization to the farmers present. W. S. Brown, district extension agent, evaluated the organization and urged the farmers to work as a unit in developing the beef cattle enterprise in this section. C. G. Garner, extension marketing specialist, discussed the location of cattle and hogs in the Southeast. This section of the possessing the most cattle and hogs in the Southeast is in the area of the Colquitt county in number of cattle.

Plaid and pencil stripes will be removed to the local hospital Wednesday. Judge Dougherty ascended the roof for the purpose of doing a small job of painting. Losing his balance, he fell to the ground, twenty feet below. Injuries about his head are said to be serious. He has remained unconscious since the accident.

LOCAL FARMERS HAVE CATTLE UNIT

BROOKLET NEWS

MRS. F. W. HUGHES, Reporter

Miss Ethel Herstein, of Vidalia, is the guest of Miss Norma Simon this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Hinson, of Alabama, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. C. Griner this week.

Rev. J. J. Sanders, pastor of the Methodist church here, is conducting a revival at Eureka this week.

Mrs. G. D. White, who has been seriously ill in the Oglethorpe Sanitarium in Savannah, is reported slightly improving.

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Zetterower and son, Edsel, spent Tuesday in Augusta, where they were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Wilber Hagan.

Mr. and Mrs. S. F. Frazier, of Jacksonville, were the dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Futch Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Rufus Anderson, of Savannah, were the week-end guests of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. Lawson Anderson.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Butler and Mrs. Dewey Butler and son, Alton, of Ellabelle, visited Mr. and Mrs. Chondos Burned Saturday.

Miss Zelma Cox will be in Savannah for several days, where she is assisting with the administration of a newly opened beauty shop.

Mr. and Mrs. G. F. Hartsfield announce the birth of a daughter on May 11. She will be called Dorothy Jean. Mrs. Hartsfield will be remembered as Miss Fay Lee, of Stillson.

Mr. and Mrs. G. O. Floyd, of Metter, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Safford, of Savannah, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Parrish during the commencement exercises of the Brooklet high school.

Miss Sue Standard, Miss Amelia Turner and Aubrey Pafford left Wednesday for their home in Washington, Ga., respectively, after having taught for the past year in the schools here.

The Anna Woodward missionary circle, of the Baptist church met with Mrs. J. N. Newton Monday afternoon and enjoyed a concluding lesson on "The Destiny of the Jews," arranged by Mrs. F. T. Hostetter. Mrs. John Shuman assisted in serving refreshments.

Mrs. H. E. Knight was the honoree Wednesday of a lovely surprise birthday basket dinner arranged by her children, Mr. and Mrs. Ulmer Knight and Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Knight. A large number of relatives and friends of the community enjoyed the happy occasion with Mrs. Knight.

Mrs. Ruby Davis announces the marriage of her daughter, Verna Rott, to Hugh Dorsey Fordham on May 12. The ceremony was performed by Elder F. H. Sills, of Metter at the minister's home. For the present Mr. and Mrs. Fordham will make their home with the groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. J. Fordham.

Brooklet School Has Closing Exercises

Brooklet, Ga., May 18.—The largest crowd ever assembled in the school auditorium here was present for the closing exercises of the Brooklet High School took place Monday night. The crowd was estimated at 1,000 people.

The twelve honor students were Dorothy Cromley, Mary Ella Alderman, Mary Elizabeth Elise, Nellie Hill, Jean Lester, Ellen Mooney, Marion Parrish, Virginia Proctor, Norma Simon, Myrtice Whitaker, Sue Zetterower, Calvin Harrison. Other members of the class were Allen Allen, Bernice Beasley, Ernestine Driggers, Myrtice Howard, Dorothy Lee, Elizabeth Ludlam, Thelma Miller, Rae Minick, Clifford Rogers, Mary Strauss, Pearl Thompson, Verna Mae Wilson, Hazel Beasley, Claude Clark, Troy Clifton, Lehman Franklin, Wilbur Garrick, Ralph Hall, Floyd Meeker, William McElven, Marshall Robertson, J. L. Shurling, Eric Smith, Weldon Thompson, Charles Zetterower, Purvis Brannen, Talmadge Womack.

Prominent on the program was a literary address given by E. A. Lowe, president of Armstrong Junior College in Savannah. The speaker laid emphasis on the progress that education had made. He spoke highly of the changing curriculum to meet the changing needs of civilization.

The class speaker was Myrtice Whitaker who gave a timely address on "The Brotherhood of Man."

Supt. H. P. Womack delivered the seventh grade certificates, after which Supt. J. H. Griffith delivered the senior class diplomas. Mrs. W. D. Lee had charge of the music on this occasion.

Anthony Eden, British diplomat, as the use of gas in warfare. Can't something be done about keeping it out of political campaigns, too?

NEVILS NEWS

Mr. and Mrs. Lawson Martin and family were the week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Waters.

Miss Mildred Frazier, of S. G. T. C., spent the week end with her parents, Supt. and Mrs. G. T. Frazier.

Mr. and Mrs. Klavis Wilkerson, of Brookville, Fla., were guests of Mr. and Mrs. F. Futch Friday night.

Mrs. S. L. Lanier and Miss Wendell Proctor were dinner guests of Dr. and Mrs. C. E. Stapleton Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Helmut and family, of Savannah, were dinner guests Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. P. M. Hodges.

Miss Mamie Lou Anderson was a visitor in Nevils Thursday afternoon, having come to attend the P-T-A meeting.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilmer Lanier, of Savannah, were the dinner guests of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Futch Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Rufus Anderson, of Savannah, were the week-end guests of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. Lawson Anderson.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Butler and Mrs. Dewey Butler and son, Alton, of Ellabelle, visited Mr. and Mrs. Chondos Burned Saturday.

Miss Zelma Cox will be in Savannah for several days, where she is assisting with the administration of a newly opened beauty shop.

Mr. and Mrs. G. F. Hartsfield announce the birth of a daughter on May 11. She will be called Dorothy Jean. Mrs. Hartsfield will be remembered as Miss Fay Lee, of Stillson.

Mr. and Mrs. G. O. Floyd, of Metter, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Safford, of Savannah, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Parrish during the commencement exercises of the Brooklet high school.

Miss Sue Standard, Miss Amelia Turner and Aubrey Pafford left Wednesday for their home in Washington, Ga., respectively, after having taught for the past year in the schools here.

The Anna Woodward missionary circle, of the Baptist church met with Mrs. J. N. Newton Monday afternoon and enjoyed a concluding lesson on "The Destiny of the Jews," arranged by Mrs. F. T. Hostetter. Mrs. John Shuman assisted in serving refreshments.

Mrs. H. E. Knight was the honoree Wednesday of a lovely surprise birthday basket dinner arranged by her children, Mr. and Mrs. Ulmer Knight and Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Knight. A large number of relatives and friends of the community enjoyed the happy occasion with Mrs. Knight.

Mrs. Ruby Davis announces the marriage of her daughter, Verna Rott, to Hugh Dorsey Fordham on May 12. The ceremony was performed by Elder F. H. Sills, of Metter at the minister's home. For the present Mr. and Mrs. Fordham will make their home with the groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. J. Fordham.

Nevils P-T-A.

On last Thursday afternoon the Nevils P-T-A held its regular meeting in the high school auditorium.

In the absence of our president, our vice-president, Mr. Raymond G. Hodges, presided.

The standing committees gave their annual reports, but the most outstanding was the treasurer's report. It was stated that we now have $192 in the treasury. We were gratified at this report and each grew more eager to raise his share of the funds necessary to properly and modernly equip our new class rooms.

Our finance chairman, Miss Maude White, gave a report of the work and entertainments outlined by her committee for the summer. The most prominent number of this report was the "Wheel Signature Spread" that carries a miniature Nevils High School emblem in the center of the spread. We were more than pleased at the nice way the ladies present responded to this work.

A committee composed of Supt. G. T. Frazier, Mrs. Frazier, Miss Maude White, Mrs. Cohen Lanier, Mrs. W. H. Cannady, Mrs. F. F. Futch, Mrs. G. B. Bowen, Mrs. Grady Rushing, Mrs. C. J. Martin and Mrs. Delmas Rushing.

Publicity committee—Mrs. W. H. Cannady, chairman, and Miss Lorie Mallard.

Program committee—Mrs. G. T. Frazier, chairman; Miss Bertha Hagin and the music and the expression teacher.

Publication committee—Miss Vahit Lord, chairman.

Membership committee—Miss Mamie Lou Anderson, chairman, and the entire faculty for the ensuing school term to act as members.

After the business part of the meeting the following committee had charge of the social hour and served fruited jello and crackers: Mrs. Chondos Burned, Mrs. R. B. Nesmith, Mrs. Carthur Hagin and Mrs. Donald Martin.

All meetings will be held on Thursday afternoon before the third Sunday in each month at 5 o'clock. Our next meeting will be held Thursday afternoon, June 18th, at 5 o'clock. We are urging all patrons to make a special effort to be present in order to keep up our attendance record.

FOR SOLICITOR GENERAL

To the Voters of the Ogeechee Circuit: I am a candidate for solicitor general of the Ogeechee circuit in the approaching primary, to be held on September 1. I have had eight years' experience as a prosecuting attorney while solicitor of the city court of Statesboro. From an active practice of more than twenty-five years in the trial of both civil and criminal cases I am familiar with court procedure. Our courts are a necessity, but sometimes the cost of running them is a heavy expense to the tax payer.

I believe in economy, and I believe I can perform the duties of this office in such a way as to help reduce the cost of running our superior courts. Cases without merit should not be brought into court, and cases with merit should be handled in such a way as to save as much time as possible to parties and witnesses who have to attend court.

The amount paid by the four counties of this circuit as part of the salary for the solicitor general is $4,000 per year. If elected I shall advocate the passage of a bill at the next session of the legislature reducing this amount to $3,000 per year, which, in my judgment, is a fair and reasonable salary.

Your vote, support and influence in my behalf will be greatly appreciated and in the event of my election I shall endeavor to give to the people of this circuit a fair and impartial service to the best of my ability, and I shall depend on some one else to draw indictments.

Yours very truly, FRED T. LANIER.

SALESMAN WANTED—Must have car and free to travel. Liberal commission, experience unnecessary. Call after 7 p. m., J. P. NEWTON, 1304 Spry St., Statesboro, Ga. (30aprrt)

POSITION WANTED—Able-bodied woman, thirty-five years of age, wants position as housekeeper in desirable home, at reasonable wages; no incumbency. Address: MRS. J. H. WALKER, Statesboro.

FOR SALE—Mixed, Brabham and Clay pens, in any quantity. LEWIS HARDWARE COMPANY, Waynesboro, Ga. (14may21c)

FOR RENT—Nice store building, hardwired long number years ago, been occupied long number years ago. CHAS. E. CONE. (14may21c)

I HAVE SEVERAL prospects for small improved farms. If you have a small lot with me, CHAS. E. CONE. (14may21c)

FOR SALE—Mixed, Brabham and Clay pens, in any quantity. LEWIS HARDWARE COMPANY, Waynesboro, Ga. (14may21c)

FOR RENT—Nice store building, hardwired long number years ago, been occupied long number years ago. CHAS. E. CONE. (14may21c)

I HAVE SEVERAL prospects for small improved farms. If you have a small lot with me, CHAS. E. CONE. (14may21c)

FOR SALE—Mixed, Brabham and Clay pens, in any quantity. LEWIS HARDWARE COMPANY, Waynesboro, Ga. (14may21c)

FOR RENT—Nice store building, hardwired long number years ago, been occupied long number years ago. CHAS. E. CONE. (14may21c)

I HAVE SEVERAL prospects for small improved farms. If you have a small lot with me, CHAS. E. CONE. (14may21c)

FOR SALE—Mixed, Brabham and Clay pens, in any quantity. LEWIS HARDWARE COMPANY, Waynesboro, Ga. (14may21c)

FOR RENT—Nice store building, hardwired long number years ago, been occupied long number years ago. CHAS. E. CONE. (14may21c)

I HAVE SEVERAL prospects for small improved farms. If you have a small lot with me, CHAS. E. CONE. (14may21c)

FOR SALE—Mixed, Brabham and Clay pens, in any quantity. LEWIS HARDWARE COMPANY, Waynesboro, Ga. (14may21c)

FOR RENT—Nice store building, hardwired long number years ago, been occupied long number years ago. CHAS. E. CONE. (14may21c)

I HAVE SEVERAL prospects for small improved farms. If you have a small lot with me, CHAS. E. CONE. (14may21c)

FOR SALE—Mixed, Brabham and Clay pens, in any quantity. LEWIS HARDWARE COMPANY, Waynesboro, Ga. (14may21c)

FOR RENT—Nice store building, hardwired long number years ago, been occupied long number years ago. CHAS. E. CONE. (14may21c)

I HAVE SEVERAL prospects for small improved farms. If you have a small lot with me, CHAS. E. CONE. (14may21c)

FOR SALE—Mixed, Brabham and Clay pens, in any quantity. LEWIS HARDWARE COMPANY, Waynesboro, Ga. (14may21c)

FOR RENT—Nice store building, hardwired long number years ago, been occupied long number years ago. CHAS. E. CONE. (14may21c)

I HAVE SEVERAL prospects for small improved farms. If you have a small lot with me, CHAS. E. CONE. (14may21c)

FOR SALE—Mixed, Brabham and Clay pens, in any quantity. LEWIS HARDWARE COMPANY, Waynesboro, Ga. (14may21c)

FOR RENT—Nice store building, hardwired long number years ago, been occupied long number years ago. CHAS. E. CONE. (14may21c)

I HAVE SEVERAL prospects for small improved farms. If you have a small lot with me, CHAS. E. CONE. (14may21c)

FOR SALE—Mixed, Brabham and Clay pens, in any quantity. LEWIS HARDWARE COMPANY, Waynesboro, Ga. (14may21c)

FOR RENT—Nice store building, hardwired long number years ago, been occupied long number years ago. CHAS. E. CONE. (14may21c)

I HAVE SEVERAL prospects for small improved farms. If you have a small lot with me, CHAS. E. CONE. (14may21c)

FOR SALE—Mixed, Brabham and Clay pens, in any quantity. LEWIS HARDWARE COMPANY, Waynesboro, Ga. (14may21c)

FOR RENT—Nice store building, hardwired long number years ago, been occupied long number years ago. CHAS. E. CONE. (14may21c)

I HAVE SEVERAL prospects for small improved farms. If you have a small lot with me, CHAS. E. CONE. (14may21c)

FOR SALE—Mixed, Brabham and Clay pens, in any quantity. LEWIS HARDWARE COMPANY, Waynesboro, Ga. (14may21c)

FOR RENT—Nice store building, hardwired long number years ago, been occupied long number years ago. CHAS. E. CONE. (14may21c)

I HAVE SEVERAL prospects for small improved farms. If you have a small lot with me, CHAS. E. CONE. (14may21c)

FOR SALE—Mixed, Brabham and Clay pens, in any quantity. LEWIS HARDWARE COMPANY, Waynesboro, Ga. (14may21c)

FOR RENT—Nice store building, hardwired long number years ago, been occupied long number years ago. CHAS. E. CONE. (14may21c)

Based on protection and service . . . the Best and most economical roofing you can buy

GULF STEEL ROOFING

STATESBORO BUGGY & WAGON CO. STATESBORO, GEORGIA

REPAIRS FOR TOBACCO FLUES

WE HAVE THE REPAIRS ON HAND.

ORDERS TAKEN FOR COMPLETE SETS OF TOBACCO FLUES.

JOHNSON HARDWARE COMPANY STATESBORO, GEORGIA (14may21c)

FOR RENT—Nice store building, hardwired long number years ago, been occupied long number years ago. CHAS. E. CONE. (14may21c)

I HAVE SEVERAL prospects for small improved farms. If you have a small lot with me, CHAS. E. CONE. (14may21c)

FOR SALE—Mixed, Brabham and Clay pens, in any quantity. LEWIS HARDWARE COMPANY, Waynesboro, Ga. (14may21c)

FOR RENT—Nice store building, hardwired long number years ago, been occupied long number years ago. CHAS. E. CONE. (14may21c)

I HAVE SEVERAL prospects for small improved farms. If you have a small lot with me, CHAS. E. CONE. (14may21c)

FOR SALE—Mixed, Brabham and Clay pens, in any quantity. LEWIS HARDWARE COMPANY, Waynesboro, Ga. (14may21c)

FOR RENT—Nice store building, hardwired long number years ago, been occupied long number years ago. CHAS. E. CONE. (14may21c)

I HAVE SEVERAL prospects for small improved farms. If you have a small lot with me, CHAS. E. CONE. (14may21c)

FOR SALE—Mixed, Brabham and Clay pens, in any quantity. LEWIS HARDWARE COMPANY, Waynesboro, Ga. (14may21c)

FOR RENT—Nice store building, hardwired long number years ago, been occupied long number years ago. CHAS. E. CONE. (14may21c)

I HAVE SEVERAL prospects for small improved farms. If you have a small lot with me, CHAS. E. CONE. (14may21c)

FOR SALE—Mixed, Brabham and Clay pens, in any quantity. LEWIS HARDWARE COMPANY, Waynesboro, Ga. (14may21c)

FOR RENT—Nice store building, hardwired long number years ago, been occupied long number years ago. CHAS. E. CONE. (14may21c)

I HAVE SEVERAL prospects for small improved farms. If you have a small lot with me, CHAS. E. CONE. (14may21c)

FOR SALE—Mixed, Brabham and Clay pens, in any quantity. LEWIS HARDWARE COMPANY, Waynesboro, Ga. (14may21c)

FOR RENT—Nice store building, hardwired long number years ago, been occupied long number years ago. CHAS. E. CONE. (14may21c)

I HAVE SEVERAL prospects for small improved farms. If you have a small lot with me, CHAS. E. CONE. (14may21c)

FOR SALE—Mixed, Brabham and Clay pens, in any quantity. LEWIS HARDWARE COMPANY, Waynesboro, Ga. (14may21c)

FOR RENT—Nice store building, hardwired long number years ago, been occupied long number years ago. CHAS. E. CONE. (14may21c)

.. Nobody's Business ..

(By GEE MCGEE, Anderson, S. C.)

Flat Rock Stages a Dog Lawsuit

a big dog lawsuit was held at the home of Judge I. C. Justis, our local magistrate over a dog, the said dog was run into and killed by the party of the first part, viz: a hound, the second son of holsum moore, and his hound is being sued by skippy Littleton, the party of the second part.

It was proved by the party of the first part that the dog was in the middle of the highway road, but the party of the second part proved that the said dog was standing on the right hand side of the road attending to his own business when the said dog dodged out towards him and killed him malis-aforethought.

Both sides had lawyers and the dog was well represented with witnesses, his character was above reproach (meaning the dog, and not the lawyer), and he had never chased or snarled at the satisfaction of the jury. He was kind and gentle to the family and never barked at nothing at night after him and the rest of the family had retired and gone to bed.

The poleman swore that he smelt whiskey on the dog and that he contacted the dog betwixt his nape and back hind legs, but his evidence was thrown out oner court of he once owned the dog and was much attached to him by association and affection. The jury did not pay much attention to what he said no how. He is a pretty good poleman, but ain't worth much as a witness.

The jury found for the dog in the sum of $18, and ordered the ostermeel attached to satisfy the said claim. An appeal was taken and it will go to the supreme court which killed the n. r. a. and the protesting taxes, so the party of the first part informed the magistrate, he says nobody can run over his reputation with a dog as a fair honest man and a sensible driver.

he entered thru the kitchen door which was left open to let the cat out, and the undersigned, pocketed with a C&O and a tax reset and a few telly-foam numbers of ladies were in same, and he had to stay in bed all day oner court of he is on relief and minus all bristles till some over-halls could be patched up.

a nice reward is offered for the return of the stole pants. They are described as follows: size 32 in the waste, size 33 in the legs, ravelling at the lower ends, 2 holes in seat, bagged badly about the knees which have flat iron in front of the buttocks of except in one place where galluses fasten at the back, color originally dark blue, but now faded to a light drab; badly in need of repairs. If returned at once no questions will be asked or answered.

several other stealings have took place in flat rock here of late. The poleman always finds out about same as soon as the stuff that is stole is reported and reported to him. up to now, he has no fingerprints, but has 2 shoe prints where they jumped out of the window. If you hear anything further about this robbery, please rite or foam 23-j.

Municipal Politics Open Up.

the many-cupped campaign guns of flat rock opened up last night on the platform in front of the drug store with the undersigned, mr. mike Clark, rfd, presiding in the chair. the election will be held at the usual time this coming summer.

holsum moore tried to heckle the present encumbrance enduring his speech for re-election but he was promptly called down by the poleman who shook his billie in his face, and was it red? only 2 eggs was thrown, and they seemed to be fairly fresh.

the main topic of the speeches, of which there were 4, consisted of the new deal ansoforth and vicy-vera. the opposites would pick out a few tier-laid cases that was versus the new deal, and play them up very strong, but as the average voter presnt has ordinary intelligence, no attention was paid to the slurs.

tom head has decided not to run for alderman in ward no. 3, but he has fetched his oldest son, puddin head, out to aspire to this office. he would make a very good counsellor if he would keep his mouth shut after he gets in. he talks and says and says and his close friends lovingly call him "windy" head.

the townsmen plan seemed to be of hell the lead with all persons above 65 and under 20; the dog was run into and killed by the party of the first part, viz: a hound, the second son of holsum moore, and his hound is being sued by skippy Littleton, the party of the second part.

they take a patron along with them to give local color when they hunt "adds," Mrs. holsum moore hope here the day she started the program off. it will be wound around a long pole. the painting is lifted, she is a hard worker, and has promised to give a 12-inch "add" for their board on the cutting.

it will soon be possible to put on all kinds of shows and come out and bow after the encores without just being on the naked stage as heretofore with the new cutting. she will furnish the ropes. she has priced it so low she couldnt possibly make over 85 cents on the bargain. everbody is depending fine in this drive for the cutting and better business.

Flat Rock Reports a Robbery

whoever entered the residence of the undersigned, mr. mike Clark, rfd, in the night time on last tuesday night, malis-aforethought, and carried off his bristles and contents from the bed-post will please return same at once and get reward or be took to law.

the name of this miss-craent is known to the poleman, and he was also saw by the undersigned in the act of removing the said wearing apparel, but he was too scared to make the alarm till he got away with same, but while he did not have his eyes wide open, they were squinted so's he could see how he looked.

the following description fits the thief who done this stealing: he is about 6 foot tall, and is bent over in the back like he had been picking cotton. he wore a hat with a narrow brim, had no specks on, a small mustash was under his nose like a tooth brush, only it was black, and he had 2 eyes, and 2 arms.

he entered thru the kitchen door which was left open to let the cat out, and the undersigned, pocketed with a C&O and a tax reset and a few telly-foam numbers of ladies were in same, and he had to stay in bed all day oner court of he is on relief and minus all bristles till some over-halls could be patched up.

a nice reward is offered for the return of the stole pants. They are described as follows: size 32 in the waste, size 33 in the legs, ravelling at the lower ends, 2 holes in seat, bagged badly about the knees which have flat iron in front of the buttocks of except in one place where galluses fasten at the back, color originally dark blue, but now faded to a light drab; badly in need of repairs. If returned at once no questions will be asked or answered.

several other stealings have took place in flat rock here of late. The poleman always finds out about same as soon as the stuff that is stole is reported and reported to him. up to now, he has no fingerprints, but has 2 shoe prints where they jumped out of the window. If you hear anything further about this robbery, please rite or foam 23-j.

Municipal Politics Open Up.

the many-cupped campaign guns of flat rock opened up last night on the platform in front of the drug store with the undersigned, mr. mike Clark, rfd, presiding in the chair. the election will be held at the usual time this coming summer.

holsum moore tried to heckle the present encumbrance enduring his speech for re-election but he was promptly called down by the poleman who shook his billie in his face, and was it red? only 2 eggs was thrown, and they seemed to be fairly fresh.

the main topic of the speeches, of which there were 4, consisted of the new deal ansoforth and vicy-vera. the opposites would pick out a few tier-laid cases that was versus the new deal, and play them up very strong, but as the average voter presnt has ordinary intelligence, no attention was paid to the slurs.

tom head has decided not to run for alderman in ward no. 3, but he has fetched his oldest son, puddin head, out to aspire to this office. he would make a very good counsellor if he would keep his mouth shut after he gets in. he talks and says and says and his close friends lovingly call him "windy" head.

the townsmen plan seemed to be of hell the lead with all persons above 65 and under 20; the dog was run into and killed by the party of the first part, viz: a hound, the second son of holsum moore, and his hound is being sued by skippy Littleton, the party of the second part.

they take a patron along with them to give local color when they hunt "adds," Mrs. holsum moore hope here the day she started the program off. it will be wound around a long pole. the painting is lifted, she is a hard worker, and has promised to give a 12-inch "add" for their board on the cutting.

HUDSON PLANS TO PILOT VISITORS

Persons Interested In Automobiles Are Invited To Inspect Plant.

When anyone visits Detroit, he usually wants to know how automobiles are made. He has heard all sorts of stories about the marvelous precision of speed and precision, and naturally wants to see for himself.

Recognizing the interest of the visitors, the Hudson Motor Car Company maintains a special course for its guides so that they may be continually up to date on the latest improvements that are constantly being made and thus be able to give the visitors an accurate and interesting picture of what they see on a tour of inspection.

With an average of more than twelve million visitors visiting Detroit annually, with some 500 conventions being conducted in the city during 1936, drawing an attendance of half a million, a large number of these visitors find their way eventually to the motor car plants and a large proportion of them go to the Hudson plant.

Speaking of Hudson's painstaking care to make a trip through its factory not only interesting, but instructive, W. R. Tracy, vice president in charge of sales, said: "The average American has in his mind a general idea of how cars are made. He visions them coming down the line, getting a tank of gas, and then being driven away to the four corners of the world. But he has very little comprehension of the processes that are employed or of what is actually done with the idea of letting every visitor to the Hudson plant know exactly what is going on. We have arranged a special course for factory guides so that they may have up-to-the-minute knowledge of every process of construction, or material and of just what every operation means."

There is much to see in a trip through the factory. There are the latest types of static and dynamic balancing machines, set on concrete foundations 10 feet deep, three feet wide and eight feet long and separated from the building floor by a thick wall of cork so that no vibrations from nearby machinery may reach them. On these machines are balanced the crankshafts that make Hudson-built motors to powerful and yet so quiet.

"Then there are the big motor operations that do eight different operations on flywheels at one time. On these machines there are eight stations, with a flywheel at each station. At the conclusion of each operation, the flywheels move automatically to the next station, where the next operation is performed. This machine has a capacity of 60 flywheels per hour. "The chassis assembly line is interesting, showing the cars gradually growing as they move along, until at last they emerge a complete automobile, all ready to drive off."

"Particularly interesting is the body plant, with its gigantic presses. The granddaddy of all these is a gigantic tandem four-point single action press which draws out of one piece of metal the seamless steel roof for 1936 Hudsons and Terraplanes. This press weighs half a million pounds, runs up 35 feet in the air and weighs a die that weighs 73 tons. A pressure of 900 tons is exerted by this press, yet the die may be set so delicately as to barely crack an egg."

"These and many other interesting operations are shown to visitors through the plant, so that when they have completed their visit, they have a comprehensive knowledge of how a car is produced."

Editor to Address Young Democrats

(By Georgia News Service)

Athens, Ga., May 19.—"A Jury of Three Million Georgians" will be the title of a speech to be delivered Friday night, May 29, at 9 o'clock over station WSB in Atlanta by L. A. Sullivan, assistant state chairman of the Roosevelt Young Voters Club of Georgia and editor-owner of the Athens Daily Times.

An urgent plea was made here today by Preston M. Almond, state chairman of the club for "all Georgians regardless of their political beliefs" to hear this message of "vital interest to every citizen."

Mr. Almond stressed the fact that Editor Sullivan has been a leader in the fight here for Roosevelt and that his paper has fought consistently for "honesty, democracy and progress in our state government."

TO OUR MILK CUSTOMERS.

On account of the great advance in feed for our dairy cows, unless our customers make satisfactory payment before the 10th of each month we will be compelled to discontinue leaving them any milk.

W. AMOS AKINS AND SON.

Homemaker News

By LILLIAN KNOWLTON.

County home demonstration agent, co-operating with the United States Department of Agriculture and the Georgia Agricultural Extension Service.

Convenient Kitchens

When a home is built, storage places may be provided during construction. In an old house, introducing a working surface or a built-in cabinet at the right point may be a great help.

If important general changes are made in a large house, the built-in pass cabinet or closet running through to the dining room is often added. This enables the housewife to pass soiled dishes directly through from the dining room to the kitchen, where they are washed and stored in the two-way closet so they may be taken out from the dining room side.

Sliding and drop shelves save space and provide working surface when it is needed. Electric utensils, serving trays, large platters, vases, and other bulky pieces of equipment are often difficult to store unless there are spaces specially designed for them. A home carpenter can build the cabinet in dimensions to accommodate these odd-sized pieces. Another kitchen convenience often added is a kitchen for sautéing lids on the wall near the stove. A knife rack saves blade edges. If the sink does not have drain boards, wooden ones can be made.

When a sink is located in the center of a wall space working surfaces on each side are convenient, especially if there are storage spaces below. In any built-in cabinet too room should be provided. I have a number of pamphlets containing suggestions for cabinets, shelves and tables, and will be glad to give one to any housewife and to help make the kitchen more convenient and in any other way possible.

If the stove burns wood, an excellent built-in aid is a wood box that can be filled from the outside and which the governor obstructed the Roosevelt administration. The legislature at the 1935 session passed a bill authorizing Georgia counties to put up highway script as collateral with the PWA. Before the bill was passed Governor Talmadge went over it in detail and approved it and wrote a letter to Secretary of the Interior. But after the bill had been passed the governor reversed himself and vetoed it, thereby depriving counties of their sole remaining method of availing themselves of PWA financing.

But even those two vetoes did not satisfy the governor's hatred of the Roosevelt administration. The legislature at the 1935 session passed a bill authorizing state banks to issue preferred stock to be sold to the Reconstruction Finance Corporation so as to enable state banks to throw out frozen assets the same as national banks were doing for the benefit of depositors and borrowers. There was not a single vote against the bill in the house or the senate. Governor Talmadge vetoed it without a word of explanation or justification.

But the foregoing is not even yet the whole record of Talmadge's attack on the University System of Georgia negotiated with the PWA a loan of $2,600,000 to construct dormitories at Athens and other institutions of the University System, and pay back the loan out of dormitory rents. The contract was drawn expressly providing that the loan was not to be a debt of the state, but an obligation solely limited to dormitory room rents. This highly advantageous arrangement satisfied everybody except Eugene Talmadge, who decreed that instead of borrowing $2,600,000 from the PWA at a very low rate of interest, and paying it back out of dormitory room rents, which would have cost the taxpayers not one dime, the legislature must appropriate $1,000,000 of the money of taxpayers to that purpose. His hatred of the Roosevelt administration was so violent and hydrophobic that he taxed the people of Georgia $1,000,000 to build dormitories which could have been built without one dollar of taxation.

The foregoing record of hatred, petty spite, and systematic obstruction of the public interest would be unbelievable were it not for the fact that the record is written and can neither be erased nor extenuated. Governor Talmadge, when he was running for reelection in 1934, presented the people of Georgia that he was a true and loyal friend of President Roosevelt—which was a deliberate and colossal deception. He put it over in 1934, but he will not put it over in 1936. Talmadge has fooled some of the people all of the time, and all of the people some of the time, but he cannot fool all of the people all of the time.

His back is broken politically, and it is only a question of a few weeks before the ensuing paralysis will reach his extremities.

Homemaker News

By LILLIAN KNOWLTON.

County home demonstration agent, co-operating with the United States Department of Agriculture and the Georgia Agricultural Extension Service.

Convenient Kitchens

When a home is built, storage places may be provided during construction. In an old house, introducing a working surface or a built-in cabinet at the right point may be a great help.

If important general changes are made in a large house, the built-in pass cabinet or closet running through to the dining room is often added. This enables the housewife to pass soiled dishes directly through from the dining room to the kitchen, where they are washed and stored in the two-way closet so they may be taken out from the dining room side.

Sliding and drop shelves save space and provide working surface when it is needed. Electric utensils, serving trays, large platters, vases, and other bulky pieces of equipment are often difficult to store unless there are spaces specially designed for them. A home carpenter can build the cabinet in dimensions to accommodate these odd-sized pieces. Another kitchen convenience often added is a kitchen for sautéing lids on the wall near the stove. A knife rack saves blade edges. If the sink does not have drain boards, wooden ones can be made.

When a sink is located in the center of a wall space working surfaces on each side are convenient, especially if there are storage spaces below. In any built-in cabinet too room should be provided. I have a number of pamphlets containing suggestions for cabinets, shelves and tables, and will be glad to give one to any housewife and to help make the kitchen more convenient and in any other way possible.

If the stove burns wood, an excellent built-in aid is a wood box that can be filled from the outside and which the governor obstructed the Roosevelt administration. The legislature at the 1935 session passed a bill authorizing Georgia counties to put up highway script as collateral with the PWA. Before the bill was passed Governor Talmadge went over it in detail and approved it and wrote a letter to Secretary of the Interior. But after the bill had been passed the governor reversed himself and vetoed it, thereby depriving counties of their sole remaining method of availing themselves of PWA financing.

But even those two vetoes did not satisfy the governor's hatred of the Roosevelt administration. The legislature at the 1935 session passed a bill authorizing state banks to issue preferred stock to be sold to the Reconstruction Finance Corporation so as to enable state banks to throw out frozen assets the same as national banks were doing for the benefit of depositors and borrowers. There was not a single vote against the bill in the house or the senate. Governor Talmadge vetoed it without a word of explanation or justification.

But the foregoing is not even yet the whole record of Talmadge's attack on the University System of Georgia negotiated with the PWA a loan of $2,600,000 to construct dormitories at Athens and other institutions of the University System, and pay back the loan out of dormitory rents. The contract was drawn expressly providing that the loan was not to be a debt of the state, but an obligation solely limited to dormitory room rents. This highly advantageous arrangement satisfied everybody except Eugene Talmadge, who decreed that instead of borrowing $2,600,000 from the PWA at a very low rate of interest, and paying it back out of dormitory room rents, which would have cost the taxpayers not one dime, the legislature must appropriate $1,000,000 of the money of taxpayers to that purpose. His hatred of the Roosevelt administration was so violent and hydrophobic that he taxed the people of Georgia $1,000,000 to build dormitories which could have been built without one dollar of taxation.

The foregoing record of hatred, petty spite, and systematic obstruction of the public interest would be unbelievable were it not for the fact that the record is written and can neither be erased nor extenuated. Governor Talmadge, when he was running for reelection in 1934, presented the people of Georgia that he was a true and loyal friend of President Roosevelt—which was a deliberate and colossal deception. He put it over in 1934, but he will not put it over in 1936. Talmadge has fooled some of the people all of the time, and all of the people some of the time, but he cannot fool all of the people all of the time.

His back is broken politically, and it is only a question of a few weeks before the ensuing paralysis will reach his extremities.

Railroad Freight Service Keeps Pace With Passenger Improvements

By LILLIAN KNOWLTON.

County home demonstration agent, co-operating with the United States Department of Agriculture and the Georgia Agricultural Extension Service.

Convenient Kitchens

When a home is built, storage places may be provided during construction. In an old house, introducing a working surface or a built-in cabinet at the right point may be a great help.

If important general changes are made in a large house, the built-in pass cabinet or closet running through to the dining room is often added. This enables the housewife to pass soiled dishes directly through from the dining room to the kitchen, where they are washed and stored in the two-way closet so they may be taken out from the dining room side.

Sliding and drop shelves save space and provide working surface when it is needed. Electric utensils, serving trays, large platters, vases, and other bulky pieces of equipment are often difficult to store unless there are spaces specially designed for them. A home carpenter can build the cabinet in dimensions to accommodate these odd-sized pieces. Another kitchen convenience often added is a kitchen for sautéing lids on the wall near the stove. A knife rack saves blade edges. If the sink does not have drain boards, wooden ones can be made.

When a sink is located in the center of a wall space working surfaces on each side are convenient, especially if there are storage spaces below. In any built-in cabinet too room should be provided. I have a number of pamphlets containing suggestions for cabinets, shelves and tables, and will be glad to give one to any housewife and to help make the kitchen more convenient and in any other way possible.

If the stove burns wood, an excellent built-in aid is a wood box that can be filled from the outside and which the governor obstructed the Roosevelt administration. The legislature at the 1935 session passed a bill authorizing Georgia counties to put up highway script as collateral with the PWA. Before the bill was passed Governor Talmadge went over it in detail and approved it and wrote a letter to Secretary of the Interior. But after the bill had been passed the governor reversed himself and vetoed it, thereby depriving counties of their sole remaining method of availing themselves of PWA financing.

But even those two vetoes did not satisfy the governor's hatred of the Roosevelt administration. The legislature at the 1935 session passed a bill authorizing state banks to issue preferred stock to be sold to the Reconstruction Finance Corporation so as to enable state banks to throw out frozen assets the same as national banks were doing for the benefit of depositors and borrowers. There was not a single vote against the bill in the house or the senate. Governor Talmadge vetoed it without a word of explanation or justification.

But the foregoing is not even yet the whole record of Talmadge's attack on the University System of Georgia negotiated with the PWA a loan of $2,600,000 to construct dormitories at Athens and other institutions of the University System, and pay back the loan out of dormitory rents. The contract was drawn expressly providing that the loan was not to be a debt of the state, but an obligation solely limited to dormitory room rents. This highly advantageous arrangement satisfied everybody except Eugene Talmadge, who decreed that instead of borrowing $2,600,000 from the PWA at a very low rate of interest, and paying it back out of dormitory room rents, which would have cost the taxpayers not one dime, the legislature must appropriate $1,000,000 of the money of taxpayers to that purpose. His hatred of the Roosevelt administration was so violent and hydrophobic that he taxed the people of Georgia $1,000,000 to build dormitories which could have been built without one dollar of taxation.

The foregoing record of hatred, petty spite, and systematic obstruction of the public interest would be unbelievable were it not for the fact that the record is written and can neither be erased nor extenuated. Governor Talmadge, when he was running for reelection in 1934, presented the people of Georgia that he was a true and loyal friend of President Roosevelt—which was a deliberate and colossal deception. He put it over in 1934, but he will not put it over in 1936. Talmadge has fooled some of the people all of the time, and all of the people some of the time, but he cannot fool all of the people all of the time.

His back is broken politically, and it is only a question of a few weeks before the ensuing paralysis will reach his extremities.

"BY THE WAY"

By LILLIAN KNOWLTON.

County home demonstration agent, co-operating with the United States Department of Agriculture and the Georgia Agricultural Extension Service.

Convenient Kitchens

When a home is built, storage places may be provided during construction. In an old house, introducing a working surface or a built-in cabinet at the right point may be a great help.

If important general changes are made in a large house, the built-in pass cabinet or closet running through to the dining room is often added. This enables the housewife to pass soiled dishes directly through from the dining room to the kitchen, where they are washed and stored in the two-way closet so they may be taken out from the dining room side.

Sliding and drop shelves save space and provide working surface when it is needed. Electric utensils, serving trays, large platters, vases, and other bulky pieces of equipment are often difficult to store unless there are spaces specially designed for them. A home carpenter can build the cabinet in dimensions to accommodate these odd-sized pieces. Another kitchen convenience often added is a kitchen for sautéing lids on the wall near the stove. A knife rack saves blade edges. If the sink does not have drain boards, wooden ones can be made.

When a sink is located in the center of a wall space working surfaces on each side are convenient, especially if there are storage spaces below. In any built-in cabinet too room should be provided. I have a number of pamphlets containing suggestions for cabinets, shelves and tables, and will be glad to give one to any housewife and to help make the kitchen more convenient and in any other way possible.

If the stove burns wood, an excellent built-in aid is a wood box that can be filled from the outside and which the governor obstructed the Roosevelt administration. The legislature at the 1935 session passed a bill authorizing Georgia counties to put up highway script as collateral with the PWA. Before the bill was passed Governor Talmadge went over it in detail and approved it and wrote a letter to Secretary of the Interior. But after the bill had been passed the governor reversed himself and vetoed it, thereby depriving counties of their sole remaining method of availing themselves of PWA financing.

But even those two vetoes did not satisfy the governor's hatred of the Roosevelt administration. The legislature at the 1935 session passed a bill authorizing state banks to issue preferred stock to be sold to the Reconstruction Finance Corporation so as to enable state banks to throw out frozen assets the same as national banks were doing for the benefit of depositors and borrowers. There was not a single vote against the bill in the house or the senate. Governor Talmadge vetoed it without a word of explanation or justification.

But the foregoing is not even yet the whole record of Talmadge's attack on the University System of Georgia negotiated with the PWA a loan of $2,600,000 to construct dormitories at Athens and other institutions of the University System, and pay back the loan out of dormitory rents. The contract was drawn expressly providing that the loan was not to be a debt of the state, but an obligation solely limited to dormitory room rents. This highly advantageous arrangement satisfied everybody except Eugene Talmadge, who decreed that instead of borrowing $2,600,000 from the PWA at a very low rate of interest, and paying it back out of dormitory room rents, which would have cost the taxpayers not one dime, the legislature must appropriate $1,000,000 of the money of taxpayers to that purpose. His hatred of the Roosevelt administration was so violent and hydrophobic that he taxed the people of Georgia $1,000,000 to build dormitories which could have been built without one dollar of taxation.

The foregoing record of hatred, petty spite, and systematic obstruction of the public interest would be unbelievable were it not for the fact that the record is written and can neither be erased nor extenuated. Governor Talmadge, when he was running for reelection in 1934, presented the people of Georgia that he was a true and loyal friend of President Roosevelt—which was a deliberate and colossal deception. He put it over in 1934, but he will not put it over in 1936. Talmadge has fooled some of the people all of the time, and all of the people some of the time, but he cannot fool all of the people all of the time.

His back is broken politically, and it is only a question of a few weeks before the ensuing paralysis will reach his extremities.

"BY THE WAY"

By LILLIAN KNOWLTON.

County home demonstration agent, co-operating with the United States Department of Agriculture and the Georgia Agricultural Extension Service.

Convenient Kitchens

When a home is built, storage places may be provided during construction. In an old house, introducing a working surface or a built-in cabinet at the right point may be a great help.

If important general changes are made in a large house, the built-in pass cabinet or closet running through to the dining room is often added. This enables the housewife to pass soiled dishes directly through from the dining room to the kitchen, where they are washed and stored in the two-way closet so they may be taken out from the dining room side.

Sliding and drop shelves save space and provide working surface when it is needed. Electric utensils, serving trays, large platters, vases, and other bulky pieces of equipment are often difficult to store unless there are spaces specially designed for them. A home carpenter can build the cabinet in dimensions to accommodate these odd-sized pieces. Another kitchen convenience often added is a kitchen for sautéing lids on the wall near the stove. A knife rack saves blade edges. If the sink does not have drain boards, wooden ones can be made.

When a sink is located in the center of a wall space working surfaces on each side are convenient, especially if there are storage spaces below. In any built-in cabinet too room should be provided. I have a number of pamphlets containing suggestions for cabinets, shelves and tables, and will be glad to give one to any housewife and to help make the kitchen more convenient and in any other way possible.

If the stove burns wood, an excellent built-in aid is a wood box that can be filled from the outside and which the governor obstructed the Roosevelt administration. The legislature at the 1935 session passed a bill authorizing Georgia counties to put up highway script as collateral with the PWA. Before the bill was passed Governor Talmadge went over it in detail and approved it and wrote a letter to Secretary of the Interior. But after the bill had been passed the governor reversed himself and vetoed it, thereby depriving counties of their sole remaining method of availing themselves of PWA financing.

But even those two vetoes did not satisfy the governor's hatred of the Roosevelt administration. The legislature at the 1935 session passed a bill authorizing state banks to issue preferred stock to be sold to the Reconstruction Finance Corporation so as to enable state banks to throw out frozen assets the same as national banks were doing for the benefit of depositors and borrowers. There was not a single vote against the bill in the house or the senate. Governor Talmadge vetoed it without a word of explanation or justification.

But the foregoing is not even yet the whole record of Talmadge's attack on the University System of Georgia negotiated with the PWA a loan of $2,600,000 to construct dormitories at Athens and other institutions of the University System, and pay back the loan out of dormitory rents. The contract was drawn expressly providing that the loan was not to be a debt of the state, but an obligation solely limited to dormitory room rents. This highly advantageous arrangement satisfied everybody except Eugene Talmadge, who decreed that instead of borrowing $2,600,000 from the PWA at a very low rate of interest, and paying it back out of dormitory room rents, which would have cost the taxpayers not one dime, the legislature must appropriate $1,000,000 of the money of taxpayers to that purpose. His hatred of the Roosevelt administration was so violent and hydrophobic that he taxed the people of Georgia $1,000,000 to build dormitories which could have been built without one dollar of taxation.

The foregoing record of hatred, petty spite, and systematic obstruction of the public interest would be unbelievable were it not for the fact that the record is written and can neither be erased nor extenuated. Governor Talmadge, when he was running for reelection in 1934, presented the people of Georgia that he was a true and loyal friend of President Roosevelt—which was a deliberate and colossal deception. He put it over in 1934, but he will not put it over in 1936. Talmadge has fooled some of the people all of the time, and all of the people some of the time, but he cannot fool all of the people all of the time.

His back is broken politically, and it is only a question of a few weeks before the ensuing paralysis will reach his extremities.

"BY THE WAY"

By LILLIAN KNOWLTON.

County home demonstration agent, co-operating with the United States Department of Agriculture and the Georgia Agricultural Extension Service.

Convenient Kitchens

When a home is built, storage places may be provided during construction. In an old house, introducing a working surface or a built-in cabinet at the right point may be a great help.

If important general changes are made in a large house, the built-in pass cabinet or closet running through to the dining room is often added. This enables the housewife to pass soiled dishes directly through from the dining room to the kitchen, where they are washed and stored in the two-way closet so they may be taken out from the dining room side.

Sliding and drop shelves save space and provide working surface when it is needed. Electric utensils, serving trays, large platters, vases, and other bulky pieces of equipment are often difficult to store unless there are spaces specially designed for them. A home carpenter can build the cabinet in dimensions to accommodate these odd-sized pieces. Another kitchen convenience often added is a kitchen for sautéing lids on the wall near the stove. A knife rack saves blade edges. If the sink does not have drain boards, wooden ones can be made.

When a sink is located in the center of a wall space working surfaces on each side are convenient, especially if there are storage spaces below. In any built-in cabinet too room should be provided. I have a number of pamphlets containing suggestions for cabinets, shelves and tables, and will be glad to give one to any housewife and to help make the kitchen more convenient and in any other way possible.

If the stove burns wood, an excellent built-in aid is a wood box that can be filled from the outside and which the governor obstructed the Roosevelt administration. The legislature at the 1935 session passed a bill authorizing Georgia counties to put up highway script as collateral with the PWA. Before the bill was passed Governor Talmadge went over it in detail and approved it and wrote a letter to Secretary of the Interior. But after the bill had been passed the governor reversed himself and vetoed it, thereby depriving counties of their sole remaining method of availing themselves of PWA financing.

But even those two vetoes did not satisfy the governor's hatred of the Roosevelt administration. The legislature at the 1935 session passed a bill authorizing state banks to issue preferred stock to be sold to the Reconstruction Finance Corporation so as to enable state banks to throw out frozen assets the same as national banks were doing for the benefit of depositors and borrowers. There was not a single vote against the bill in the house or the senate. Governor Talmadge vetoed it without a word of explanation or justification.

But the foregoing is not even yet the whole record of Talmadge's attack on the University System of Georgia negotiated with the PWA a loan of $2,600,000 to construct dormitories at Athens and other institutions of the University System, and pay back the loan out of dormitory rents. The contract was drawn expressly providing that the loan was not to be a debt of the state, but an obligation solely limited to dormitory room rents. This highly advantageous arrangement satisfied everybody except Eugene Talmadge, who decreed that instead of borrowing $2,600,000 from the PWA at a very low rate of interest, and paying it back out of dormitory room rents, which would have cost the taxpayers not one dime, the legislature must appropriate $1,000,000 of the money of taxpayers to that purpose. His hatred of the Roosevelt administration was so violent and hydrophobic that he taxed the people of Georgia $1,000,000 to build dormitories which could have been built without one dollar of taxation.

The foregoing record of hatred, petty spite, and systematic obstruction of the public interest would be unbelievable were it not for the fact that the record is written and can neither be erased nor extenuated. Governor Talmadge, when he was running for reelection in 1934, presented the people of Georgia that he was a true and loyal friend of President Roosevelt—which was a deliberate and colossal deception. He put it over in 1934, but he will not put it over in 1936. Talmadge has fooled some of the people all of the time, and all of the people some of the time, but he cannot fool all of the people all of the time.

His back is broken politically, and it is only a question of a few weeks before the ensuing paralysis will reach his extremities.

"BY THE WAY"

By LILLIAN KNOWLTON.

County home demonstration agent, co-operating with the United States Department of Agriculture and the Georgia Agricultural Extension Service.

Convenient Kitchens

When a home is built, storage places may be provided during construction. In an old house, introducing a working surface or a built-in cabinet at the right point may be a great help.

If important general changes are made in a large house, the built-in pass cabinet or closet running through to the dining room is often added. This enables the housewife to pass soiled dishes directly through from the dining room to the kitchen, where they are washed and stored in the two-way closet so they may be taken out from the dining room side.

Sliding and drop shelves save space and provide working surface when it is needed. Electric utensils, serving trays, large platters, vases, and other bulky pieces of equipment are often difficult to store unless there are spaces specially designed for them. A home carpenter can build the cabinet in dimensions to accommodate these odd-sized pieces. Another kitchen convenience often added is a kitchen for sautéing lids on the wall near the stove. A knife rack saves blade edges. If the sink does not have drain boards, wooden ones can be made.

When a sink is located in the center of a wall space working surfaces on each side are convenient, especially if there are storage spaces below. In any built-in cabinet too room should be provided. I have a number of pamphlets containing suggestions for cabinets, shelves and tables, and will be glad to give one to any housewife and to help make the kitchen more convenient and in any other way possible.

If the stove burns wood, an excellent built-in aid is a wood box that can be filled from the outside and which the governor obstructed the Roosevelt administration. The legislature at the 1935 session passed a bill authorizing Georgia counties to put up highway script as collateral with the PWA. Before the bill was passed Governor Talmadge went over it in detail and approved it and wrote a letter to Secretary of the Interior. But after the bill had been passed the governor reversed himself and vetoed it, thereby depriving counties of their sole remaining method of availing themselves of PWA financing.

But even those two vetoes did not satisfy the governor's hatred of the Roosevelt administration. The legislature at the 1935 session passed a bill authorizing state banks to issue preferred stock to be sold to the Reconstruction Finance Corporation so as to enable state banks to throw out frozen assets the same as national banks were doing for the benefit of depositors and borrowers. There was not a single vote against the bill in the house or the senate. Governor Talmadge vetoed it without a word of explanation or justification.

But the foregoing is not even yet the whole record of Talmadge's attack on the University System of Georgia negotiated with the PWA a loan of $2,600,000 to construct dormitories at Athens and other institutions of the University System, and pay back the loan out of dormitory rents. The contract was drawn expressly providing that the loan was not to be a debt of the state, but an obligation solely limited to dormitory room rents. This highly advantageous arrangement satisfied everybody except Eugene Talmadge, who decreed that instead of borrowing $2,600,000 from the PWA at a very low rate of interest, and paying it back out of dormitory room rents, which would have cost the taxpayers not one dime, the legislature must appropriate $1,000,000 of the money of taxpayers to that purpose. His hatred of the Roosevelt administration was so violent and hydrophobic that he taxed the people of Georgia $1,000,000 to build dormitories which could have been built without one dollar of taxation.

The foregoing record of hatred, petty spite, and systematic obstruction of the public interest would be unbelievable were it not for the fact that the record is written and can neither be erased nor extenuated. Governor Talmadge, when he was running for reelection in 1934, presented the people of Georgia that he was a true and loyal friend of President Roosevelt—which was a deliberate and colossal deception. He put it over in 1934, but he will not put it over in 1936. Talmadge has fooled some of the people all of the time, and all of the people some of the time, but he cannot fool all of the people all of the time.

His back is broken politically, and it is only a question of a few weeks before the ensuing paralysis will reach his extremities.

"BY THE WAY"

By LILLIAN KNOWLTON.

County home demonstration agent, co-operating with the United States Department of Agriculture and the Georgia Agricultural Extension Service.

Convenient Kitchens

When a home is built, storage places may be provided during construction. In an old house, introducing a working surface or a built-in cabinet at the right point may be a great help.

If important general changes are made in a large house, the built-in pass cabinet or closet running through to the dining room is often added. This enables the housewife to pass soiled dishes directly through from the dining room to the kitchen, where they are washed and stored in the two-way closet so they may be taken out from the dining room side.

Sliding and drop shelves save space and provide working surface when it is needed. Electric utensils, serving trays, large platters, vases, and other bulky pieces of equipment are often difficult to store unless there are spaces specially designed for them. A home carpenter can build the cabinet in dimensions to accommodate these odd-sized pieces. Another kitchen convenience often added is a kitchen for sautéing lids on the wall near the stove. A knife rack saves blade edges. If the sink does not have drain boards, wooden ones can be made.

When a sink is located in the center of a wall space working surfaces on each side are convenient, especially if there are storage spaces below. In any built-in cabinet too room should be provided. I have a number of pamphlets containing suggestions for cabinets, shelves and tables, and will be glad to give one to any housewife and to help make the kitchen more convenient and in any other way possible.

If the stove burns wood, an excellent built-in aid is a wood box that can be filled from the outside and which the governor obstructed the Roosevelt administration. The legislature at the 1935 session passed a bill authorizing Georgia counties to put up highway script as collateral with the PWA. Before the bill was passed Governor Talmadge went over it in detail and approved it and wrote a letter to Secretary of the Interior. But after the bill had been passed the governor reversed himself and vetoed it, thereby depriving counties of their sole remaining method of availing themselves of PWA financing.

But even those two vetoes did not satisfy the governor's hatred of the Roosevelt administration.

